A large crowd of people is gathered in front of the Western Wall in Jerusalem. The wall is made of large, light-colored stone blocks. The crowd is diverse in age and appearance, with many people wearing white shirts. The scene is set outdoors, and the lighting suggests it might be late afternoon or early morning.

A PRAYER for JERUSALEM

Our Father in Heaven, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. In obedience to Your word, I pray for the peace of Jerusalem and the Land of Israel. Bless the people of Israel with Your promise of redemption, shield them with Your love, and bring renewed hope for their day of salvation. Guide Israel's leaders and advisors with the light of Your truth. For Your Name's sake, I ask that You remember Your promise and bless the Land with peace, and its inhabitants with lasting joy.

In Yeshua's name –Amen!

The Annual Day of Prayer for the Peace of Jerusalem
The First Sunday of Every October

Over 1,500 international Christian leaders are mobilizing tens of thousands of pastors and believers from every continent to pray on the first Sunday in October, which is the annual "Day of Prayer for the Peace of Jerusalem." We invite you to join this global mission, started by Pastors Jack Hayford and Robert Stearns, to pray that God's promise of peace will be realized for all the inhabitants of this historic city.

Why should I pray?
We pray because Scripture compels us. Psalm 122 and Isaiah 62 teach us to "pray for the peace of Jerusalem" and "give Him no rest until He establishes Jerusalem as a praise in the earth."

How should I pray?
Pray that God's shalom will fill the hearts and minds of all peoples in the region, bringing an end to terror and the shedding of innocent blood.

For whom should I pray?
Pray for both Jew and Arab alike, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem. Specifically pray for religious and political leaders, oppressed women and children, victims of terror, believers in the Land, and the young generation of Israelis and Arab Palestinians.

How often should I pray?
Pray without ceasing. Rally your local congregation to participate in the annual "Day of Prayer for the Peace of Jerusalem" this October. Additionally, you are encouraged to pray daily for Jerusalem's peace.
